

From: Andrew Spencer
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 10:15pm
Subject: I believe the proposed settlement in the Microsoft vs DOJ anti-trust case

I believe the proposed settlement in the Microsoft vs DOJ anti-trust case is impotent in the disintegration of Microsoft's festering monopoly of the consumer operating system market.

Specifically, the proposed settlement offers weak measures ensuring that Microsoft does not continue to use practices that act as a barrier of entry to competitors. Please review these arguments for further proofs:

<http://www.kegel.com/remedy/remedy2.html>

Thank you for listening,
Andrew Spencer
A devoted, concerned U.S. citizen and computer user.

andrew@fallingblue.com
<http://andrew.fallingblue.com>
